Exambusters Exam Preparation Tools Now Available Digitally on EdTech's Website

Tempe, Arizona – April 2, 2019 – EdTech Software has partnered with Exambusters to bring comprehensive and powerful digital test preparation tools to students and teachers. Over 100 flash card courses for middle and high school test prep and American Sign Language are now available for immediate download by teachers, parents, and students on the Exambusters page on EdTech's ShelfIt.com website.

"We are delighted to be partnering with EdTech Software to bring Exambusters products to schools nationwide," said Elizabeth Burchard, President, Exambusters Study Cards. "We have been impressed by, and share, EdTech Software's core values of excellence, service, innovation, and sharing knowledge. We look forward to empowering students and instructors through our flash card study guides," she added.

"What makes Exambusters Study Cards special and unique is that their electronic flash cards were written by certified teachers who teach standardized test preparation workshops. Each course supplies the core facts students need to grasp in order to score well on tests" said Peter Sauer, President of EdTech.

Exambusters digital test preparation flash cards can be easily downloaded by students, teachers, and parents anywhere in the world by going to EdTech's ShelfIt website, and on the Exambusters page.
